

Time for the Annual Accounting Update

sponsored by PwC LLP

Tuesday October 24, 2017 Breakfast @ 8:00 am; seminar 8:30 am - 11:30 am
St Andrew's Club, 150 King Street West, 27th Floor, (Hall & Lounge), Toronto

The experts from PwC discuss:

- Insurance Contracts (IFRS 17) - overview of the standard - key issues for P&C insurers
- Financial Instruments (IFRS 9) - overview of the standard - temporary exemption - disclosures - transition
- Leases (IFRS 16) - overview of the standard - measurement - presentation & disclosures
- Revenue Recognition (IFRS 15) - overview of the standard. As always, there's time allotted for Q&A.

Alodie Brew, Partner, PwC LLP

Alodie has over 25 years experience in the financial services industry, specializing in insurance. She works collaboratively with clients and leverages her broad relationships to bring them the expertise of the entire firm. Alodie is a recognized leader in the industry. She is a member of the OSFI Insurance Advisory Committee, an advisor to the IBC (Financial Affairs), the co-chair of the IBC IFRS 17 Working Group and a regular speaker at industry events.

Kyle Snyder, Assurance Senior Manager, PwC LLP

Kyle has over 10 years of audit and advisory experience in the insurance industry. Kyle spent two years in PwC's UK office working on the audit of a global insurer. His experience includes technical accounting, IFRS conversions, audits of complex internal control and IT environments, advisory services and regulatory compliance and reporting. He has a strong understanding of insurance products and related risks for P&C insurers.

Cassandra Rouse, Manager, PwC LLP

Cassandra has significant experience auditing P&C insurance companies, including Canadian operations of multi-national insurers. She works closely with management to understand processes, flow of transactions and related control activities, as well as its oversight function and control environment. Cassandra also provides guidance on accounting and regulatory developments and contributes to thought leadership.

CIAA Member rates: $140.00 (HST included)

Non-Member rates: $190.00 (HST included)

Registration is open!

