

Reza is a senior manager in PwC Canada's Financial Services Tax practice. Reza works with regulated financial institutions, including life insurers, property and casualty insurers, as well as asset management companies. Reza began his career in public service as an abusive tax avoidance auditor in the International and Large Business Directorate at the Canada Revenue Agency. He has a graduate diploma in Taxation from the University of Waterloo.